

CAL POLY GLOBAL PROGRAMS CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Cal Poly International Center promotes and supports international education opportunities for faculty and students by administering well-designed and academically rigorous study abroad programs. Cal Poly Global Programs offer Cal Poly courses taught by Cal Poly faculty in many locations worldwide. Faculty, working collaboratively with the International Center, choose location, courses and program-related excursions. We are pleased to announce a 'Call for Proposals' for faculty interested in creating a new study abroad program or renewing an existing program for Winter, Spring Break, or Spring 2019.

Preference will be given to proposals that address the competitive priorities listed below.

COMPETITIVE PRIORITIES

Program requirements:

1. Courses fulfill major, minor, or general education degree requirements
2. Adheres to the two unit per week maximum and, for Self-Support programs, offers more than four units
3. Has the potential to garner sufficient interest for 20-24 participants (or 25-50 participants if led by two or more faculty)

Program preferences:

1. Proposes locations in which the faculty has experience and expertise
2. Addresses curricular areas not supported by existing Cal Poly Global Programs
3. Offers opportunities in countries or regions in which Cal Poly has little or no current study abroad programming (view current Cal Poly Global programs at abroad.calpoly.edu.)
4. Provides opportunities for increasing the accessibility of study abroad, with particular emphasis on students of limited economic means and students underrepresented in study abroad

Faculty requirements:

1. Faculty must have had at least two years of teaching experience at Cal Poly
2. Faculty must be present on campus for at least two quarters prior to departure or otherwise demonstrate the ability to effectively recruit participants
3. Faculty must have the support of the department chair and college dean

SELECTION

Program proposals are reviewed by the International Programs Committee and recommended for selection to the Director of the Cal Poly International Center and the Executive Director of Extended Education (if Self-Support).

DEADLINES

November 15, 2017, 5:00 p.m. for Winter, Spring Break, and Spring 2019 programs

Please note: Deadline for Summer and Fall 2019 programs will be April 1, 2018.
